

Anne's White Glove

*written by Alice Notley directed by Alana Siegel
October 25th, 2014
Alette in Oakland
The Omni*

Good night!

The play takes place in NYC in the 1980s. The principals are poets & artists in their thirties & forties. Casual dress, jeans, etc. Neighborhood a rather poor one. The conversations between Alison & Maggie take place somewhere indefinable “in the country.”

CAST

Alison, a poet	Jane Gregory
Jim, Alison's husband, now dead, also a poet	David Brazil
Doug, Alison's friend, painter; head of the Chorus	Kevin Killian
Maggie, Alison's sister (a pianist)	Elaine Kahn
Susie, a photographer & Alison's friend	Crystal Sasaki

Chorus

A group of people that might also include the actors of Susie, Maggie, and sometimes Jim. Doug is the head of the chorus. Members of the chorus appear individually as the following characters:

1st Drunk	Cassandra Gillig
2nd Drunk	Helen Frances
3rd Drunk	Jeremy Dalmas
Girl	Helen Frances
Girl II	Annie O'Hare
Man	Jeremy Dalmas
Man	Kit Schluter
Man II	Paul Ebenkamp
Uncle Walter	Steve Dickison
Woman	Annie O'Hare
Children	Heidi Gustafson

Set Design	Monica Raden
Lights	Monica Raden & Kevin Lo
Film	Alex Cruse
Props and Programs	Heidi Gustafson
Director	Alana Siegal

Costume design was a collaborative endeavor among all actors.

Thank you to everyone who made contributions to our campaign effort which went towards sets, costumes, and props.

Special thanks to Kevin Lo and Hannah Michahelles for insight and assistance during the rehearsal process, and to Brian Glasscock for help with hanging lighting.

Deep thanks to Joshua Hayes and Buffy Plante for meeting with the cast to discuss their work in the ICU and hospice care, to ground and give us a space to reflect on the moment of death and the process of mourning.

Finally, to all our past and future loves.